

Lounges With a View of NYC

Mad 46

Between April and October of every year, this rooftop lounge has open seating for public enjoyment. Guests enter through the Roosevelt Hotel in Bryant Park between 42 Street and Fifth Avenue. In the hotel lobby, hosts are waiting to escort them up a private elevator to the lounge. The lounge is on the roof 19 stories up and offers a surrounding view of downtown New York. They have signature cocktails, a beer menu, wine selection and appetizers like seared ahi tuna and kobe beef sliders. An indoor lounge offers refuge in case of rain so guests will not be daunted by dark clouds.
